Featuring Headliners like:

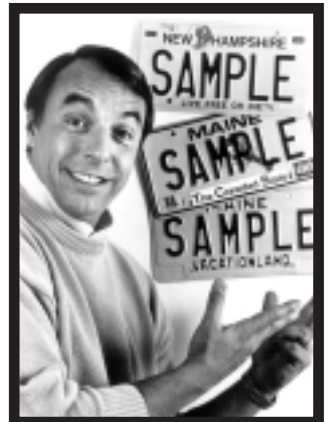

The Shaw Brothers

Twin brothers Rick and Ron are as fresh and invigorating as the rugged New England coast and New Hampshire hills they call home. They wrote and recorded "Teach The World To Sing," for Coca Cola in 1972 which later became an international hit song. They offer a unique blend of traditional and contemporary music interspersed with humor, poems and stories. The result is pure magic and entertainment at its best.

Tim Sample

Tim is widely known as New England's premier native humorist. Tim has written and/or illustrated over a dozen books and appeared on national television including The Today Show and Good Morning America. He has performed thousands of venues from Los Angeles to Caribou, Maine. As Stephen King puts it, "He's funny if you come from Augusta, Maine...he's just as funny if you come from Augusta, Georgia."

Half Moon Jug Band

The Half Moon Jug Band is Maine's premier high-octane, street-corner acoustic music ensemble. The four piece folk band gently, yet firmly, rips through old-timey standards and catchy original tunes on guitar, banjo, bass, drums, mandolin, kazoo, and a bunch of other instruments. Their live performances are invigorating and fun for the whole family.
